

Administrative Order

April 13, 2021

2021-PR-034

DOUGLAS T. SHIMA
CLERK OF APPELLATE COURTS

Visits to the Kansas Judicial Center and the Offices of the Kansas Lawyers Assistance Program and Disciplinary Administrator

Visits to the Kansas Judicial Center, 301 West 10th Avenue, Topeka, Kansas 66612, remain restricted to:

- The judicial branch workforce; and
- the public having court business that cannot be conducted remotely online or via mail service with the:
 - Kansas Supreme Court;
 - Kansas Court of Appeals;
 - Clerk of the Appellate Courts;
 - Appellate Reporter's Office;
 - Supreme Court Law Library;
 - Judicial Council; and
 - Office of Judicial Administration.

This restriction also applies to the Kansas Lawyers Assistance Program and the Disciplinary Administrator's offices.

Events or tours in the Kansas Judicial Center must be authorized by the Judicial Administrator or his or her designee and the Chief Justice or his or her designee.

Persons entering the Kansas Judicial Center or offices of the Kansas Lawyers Assistance Program or the Disciplinary Administrator will be asked screening questions consistent with public health guidelines. Temperature checks may be required. Admission may be denied. Employees and the public must comply with health and safety directives provided in administrative orders of the Supreme Court and Chief Justice.

The Supreme Court encourages using the judicial branch website at www.kscourts.org and other online tools to complete court business in lieu of visiting these locations.

This order supersedes and rescinds 2020-PR-125.

Dated this 13th day of April 2021. This order is effective on filing.

FOR THE COURT

MARLA LUCKERT
Chief Justice
